Twelve Chairs Version

July 14-17, 2016

Rehearsals start mid-June

Davenport Theatrical, established in 2008, is a community theatre and the only nonprofit producing arts organization in Lincoln County, WA.

Of the twelve roles in this production, two roles will be cast through our Guest Artist Program, which brings 2-4 professional theatre artists from around the country to work alongside and mentor local volunteers during our summer production. The two professional actors will join NYC-based director Reesa Graham as the three 2016 guest artists.

Guest artists must be excited about the idea of working alongside a cast of volunteers... largely middle-aged farmers and teachers, some of whom have never appeared onstage before. In addition to rehearsal and performance duties, the three guest artists will be tasked with developing and presenting two free theatre workshops to the community.

Guest artists are provided with round-trip travel, a weekly fee, and a private room in a shared house.

Davenport, WA (pop. 1,700) is the county seat of Lincoln County, the second-largest producer of wheat in the country. Lincoln County's population (10,000) is spread out among 8 small farm towns, of which Davenport is the largest. Davenport is about 40 miles west of Spokane and 300 miles east of Seattle. There are like two restaurants, and no businesses open after 8:00 PM.

CELEBRATING 70 YEARS!

FP FORESTBURGH PLAYHOUSE

Founded in 1947, the Forestburgh Playhouse is the oldest continuously operating professional summer theatre in New York State. Under an agreement with the Actors' Equity Association, the union of professional actors and stage managers, the Playhouse employs professional actors, often with Broadway or other major credits, as well as a company of non-union professionals who earn credit toward their own eventual membership in the Actors' Equity Association.

The Forestburgh Playhouse operates during the summers only, from mid-June through Labor Day, and offers 3 different types of performance experiences: Broadway musicals and plays on the main stage, a youth theatre production performed at 11 AM on Thursdays and Saturdays, and musical cabaret performances presented with dinner in the adjoining Forestburgh Tavern during the week and a late-nite cabaret Fridays and Saturdays after every evening performance.

SUMMER SEASON 2016

RESIDENT COMPANY:

The EMC Resident Acting Company (aka the ResCo) forms the core of the Forestburgh Playhouse. The sixteen non-union actors in this year's company (8 men, 8 women) spend the summer performing and rehearsing in a professional atmosphere, gaining valuable experience and learning their craft. Resident actors are not interns or apprentices, but full time performing non-union professionals.

Performance: Resident actors have enormous performing opportunities at the Playhouse. Each company member is guaranteed to appear in Anything Goes, The Addams Family, The Who's Tommy, Into the Woods, and Rock of Ages, as well as three cabarets and the children's shows, which will be Roald Dahl's Willy Wonka TYA. Possibilities for main stage roles include leads, supporting roles, and ensemble.

Contracts: Most resident actor contracts begin May 29, 2016 and all will extend through August 28, 2016. All performers must be available for the entire season.

Compensation: $160/week + tips earned at the cabarets, ALL MEALS PROVIDED, housing provided, transportation to and from the Playhouse is provided as well.

"I led myself to believe that this magical place was my home and that we would never have to leave and jump back into a different reality than this one we have created for ourselves here at Fort Peck Summer Theatre. All I can hope for is that the next thing in each of our lives gives us even the slightest show of confidence, love, support, encouragement and magic that this place and its people possess."

"You may think that a summer theatre at the end of the map would be a paltry source of artistic integrity, but FPST would prove you wrong. It stands out, not only as an epicenter of theatre, but as an environment that encourages and fosters creativity. I grew tremendously as a designer during my summers at FPST, and credit that growth to the leading artistic team."

Celebrating 47 years of live professional theatre, FPST is located on a gorgeous lake in Northeast Montana. The season is presented in 3 week stock, performed at the historic 1,000 seat Fort Peck Theatre. Season runs from mid-May thru August. Contracts are offered for various lengths, depending on artist availability and company needs. College credit or internships can also be arranged.

The Mac-Haydn Theatre Inc.

A NON-PROFIT CORPORATION

NY's Exciting Professional Musical Theatre-In-the-Round
Founders Linda MacNish & Lynne Haydn
On Rte 203 • PO Box 204 • Chatham, NY 12037

The Mac-Haydn Theatre is a 350 seat professional musical theater in the round. Located just 2 hours north of New York City in the historic village of Chatham, The Mac-Haydn has been producing musicals for 48 years and counting. The season consists of 7 mainstage musicals, as well as a 3 show children's series. Opening on Memorial Day every summer and closing on Labor Day, the theatre is constantly buzzing with performances, rehearsals, and special events. We offer a variety of shows ranging from the classics of Rodgers and Hammerstein to the new big hits of Today's Broadway. There truly is a show for everyone.

The Mac-Haydn theatre is made up of a core company of professional Actors that are featured in supporting and lead roles throughout the summer; Guest Artists and specific actors are also brought in for certain roles during the summer as well. Many talented local actors from the region are often seen on the boards here as well as many of Columbia County's talented youth actors. The majority of the company is cast from the spring auditions in New York City.

So many performers have passed through our doors over the years; Most notably, Nathan Lane (then known as Joe Lane) got his start here at The Mac. Literally thousands of actors and technicians have launched careers that have led to Broadway, National Tours, and Regional Theatres across the country. A summer at The Mac-Haydn lets an artist be completely immersed in the craft. The schedule is fast paced and requires tremendous focus and discipline as we operate on a two week rotating show schedule. What that means, basically, is that while one show is running, the next one is rehearsing.

Directors, designers and choreographers come from all over the country to work in our dynamic space. With an audience on all four sides and never more than 40 feet from the stage, an intimacy is achieved that simply cannot be achieved on a proscenium stage. With stellar Costumes, incredible lighting and an impeccable live band, the Mac-Haydn has become a destination for many theatre lovers upstate. Many of our actors come back year after year as well. Put simply, it is a great place to do exceptional theatre.

In addition to the mainstage shows, performers also have the chance to sing live in our Friday and Saturday night Coffeehouse. From classical musical theatre songs to contemporary hits, this venue lets an actor perform in the cabaret setting and perfect their repertoire. Speaking of cabarets, our End Of the Season Cabaret is yet another chance for our company to perform for our most appreciative audiences. Sounds like a busy summer? It certainly is, but it promises to be one of the most exciting and rewarding stops along an artist's journey.

Park Playhouse Student Classes

For students ages 8-12, Performing Artist's Workshop is aimed at giving young, beginner and intermediate-level students a well-rounded musical theatre education. Whether getting over stage-fright, learning acting basics, gaining vocal technique or building dance skills, these classes provide fundamental skills and foster a student's love for the performing arts. Each student trains in the basics of dance, acting, and voice during the weekly 90-minute class. Classes are held Wednesdays 5:30pm-7:00pm beginning on September 16.

For students over the age of 12, our series of Dance Classes allow students to build the fundamental abilities needed to excel as a dancer and artist in the theatre. These are technique-based classes, where the focus is on the skill and not preparation for recital performances. Tuesday evenings will feature a schedule of Tap Dance (5:30pm), Ballet (6:30pm), and Musical Theatre Dance (7:30pm). On Thursdays, students hoping to attend a BFA college program can receive preparation in the Advanced Jazz class from 5:00pm-7:30pm.

For students ages 15-18, Park Playhouse is introducing a new class focusing exclusively on the art of acting. While many local students have voice teachers or participate in a dance studio, very few have the opportunity to engage in formal acting training. Advanced Scene Study will cover topics including rehearsal preparation, scoring of scenes, monologue presentation, audition preparation, in-depth scene analysis and improvisation. Classes are held Thursdays 7:00pm-8:30pm beginning on September 17.

Park Playhouse & The Palace Theatre are presenting a new free Urban Arts Series designed for students in downtown Albany neighborhoods, giving them a tuition free opportunity to express themselves through the arts.

Beginning on Tuesday, October 6, classes in Step Dance (5:30pm), Spoken Word Poetry (6:30pm), and Hip-Hop Dance (7:30pm) are taught to students ages 13-18. Whether interested in movement or poetry, students will be encouraged to explore their experience and channel their stories through the performing arts.

This is an exciting opportunity to get advanced, professionally curated Broadway-level training without leaving our own backyard.

The Powerhouse Theater Training Program challenges you to look at the art of theater in new and meaningful ways. Explore the boundaries of theater by living, breathing and creating theater with peers and professionals alike.

The program is the result of a unique collaboration between Vassar College, a prestigious liberal arts institution, and New York Stage and Film, an award-winning New York City based professional theater company. Some of the projects that trace their developmental roots to Powerhouse include Hamilton, currently running on Broadway as well as Tony-award winning American Idiot, Doubt and Sideman. Work alongside some of the county's leading and emerging theater practitioners for five weeks, observing and participating in the process through which new works are brought to life.

Students in the Powerhouse program apply for a discipline (acting, directing or playwriting). A Powerhouse day includes morning classes taught by an outstanding faculty. Powerhouse afternoons and evenings feature rehearsals for the outdoor theater season, workshops and calls to assist in the shops.

Classes for the actor are held daily and are taught by leading artists in various disciplines. The core classes are: Acting, Voice, Text and Movement. Actors are cast in one of three outdoor productions plus studio projects and workshops. If time and schedules permit, actors are sometimes given opportunities to work alongside the professional company as readers of stage directions for one of the Readings Festivals. Additionally, Powerhouse is a proud participant of the Actor's Equity Association EMC program through which you can start your journey towards membership to the union for actors.

Directors meet in two sessions, each twice a week, with one session devoted to the reading and analysis of text and one session devoted to the fundamentals of theatrical composition. Students have the opportunity to apply their skills by directing new scripts written by playwright apprentices, as well as scenes from published plays. Directors are also assigned to assist in the rehearsal process for both apprentice and professional company productions. Every director will have the opportunity to work alongside one of the professional productions in the Powerhouse season, observing their process as they tackle the challenges of bringing a new project to life.

Writers are encouraged to develop discipline. A light class schedule allows them to devote more of their time to writing. Students have the opportunity to apply their skills by writing new scripts for different projects that are then directed by apprentice directors. Writers are also assigned to assist in the rehearsal process of the professional company. Every writer will have the opportunity to work alongside one of the professional playwrights in the Powerhouse season.

Throughout the program, apprentices in all disciplines will take part in master classes and/or talk-back sessions designed exclusively for training program participants. Some of the members of the Powerhouse professional company who have shared their time with the apprentice company include Hunter Bell, Santino Fontana, Zach Helm, Josh Radnor, John Patrick Shanley and Jennifer Westfeldt.

Discover your voice as an actor, director or writer this summer, June 23-July 31, 2016 with the Powerhouse Theater Training Program. Theatre Under The Stars' "Shakespeare in the Valley" Outdoor Fest (Regular Season: June 29th-August 6th, Hold-over: Aug. 10th-24th)

EXCITING NEWS FOR 2016: WORKSHOPPING A NEW, FULL-LENGTH MUSICAL! All of our actors will have the rare opportunity to be invited into a workshop process (Aug 10-24th, after our regular season is completed) for a new full length musical we're producing in partnership with an award-winning composer. The actors who participate will garner professional regional musical theater credit as well as being the first to play the roles and sing the music. Working closely with the creators of the show, their input will help shape the evolution of the piece. The NH Summer workshop offers actors a chance to "get in on the ground floor" in a progressive strategy of planned backer's showcases, NYC performances, festivals and professional theatrical productions in 2016-2017.

WHO WE ARE: An outdoor classical summer repertory company, our aim is to put the "shake" back in Shakespeare! In the time-honored tradition of actor-led companies that was the norm in Shakespeare's age, our staff gathers around them multi-talented performers to form a "lean, mean Shakespeare machine" that not only encourages audience participation, but provokes it! And, as New Hampshire's ONLY low/no cost professional theatre troupe, we are a little theatre with a big heart. A unique blend of social consciousness paired with daring, muscular, passionate productions, our theatre has been awarded a Special Commendation from the Governor and featured in the NY Times, Boston Globe and countless other magazines and media outlets for its' unique approach, with both our productions and individual actors awarded "best of the best" accolades.

WHAT WE DO: Our home theatre space is in the gorgeous 4 star Waterville Valley Resort, where our evening Main Stage shows are performed each week-end in alternating repertory on simple indoor and outdoor stages with little to distract from the power and force of Shakespeare's words. We have also become one of New England's busiest classical summer touring company—going out 4 nights a week to underserved parts of the state. To date, over 300,000 people have thrilled to our shows!

OUR SEASON: We are unique...and so is our casting process! Because "Ensemble" is so important to us, we do not choose the actors to fit the shows, we choose the shows to fit the actors. All actors and staff go to contract with a guarantee of principal Main Stage roles but with no shows listed. Once we have the cast assembled, we then see what show is most appropriate to suit the skills, experience, training and unique personality blends and energies of the ensemble.

OUR TWO PROFESSIONAL COMPANIES: We follow the practice of most Shakespeare theatres in casting "non-traditional": We cast the right actor for the role, regardless of age, gender or "type". Men play women, women play men, and "children" may actually be older than their "parents"! Our two companies are....

COMPANY A: "SHAKESPERIMENT" BARD BOOTCAMP: An "emerging artists teaching company" like no other, this collaborative program is unique among its' peers in the U.S. Company A Edusemble opens our Main Stage season and is responsible for two evening Main Stage shows. Our dense and intense "boot camp" immersion approach builds both your resume and your skill level. Inspired by their work with the Royal Academy of Dramatic Art, and following many of the educational practices they honed there, the program creators' made the curriculum demanding by design: Under the careful guidance of their Team Leader/Director, the pace, schedule and responsibilities placed upon actors are created to break down and eliminate bad habits then build them up into courageous and competent professionals able to take on anything that comes their way!! Rehearsals and performances are in a variety of rustic spaces which, combined with unpredictable New England weather, are inherently challenging. The key to the program's success is placing actors in carefully supervised situations that force them out of their "comfort zone" and expedite swift growth and progress. Each year, a few Co A actors may get asked to stay on with Co. B for the remainder of the summer. As well, for 2016, many may be asked during the Co A season to return to NH Aug 10-24th for the workshop of the new musical being produced by the theatre. No matter how they arrive, all actors leave FOREVER AND PROFOUNDLY CHANGED by having been Shakesperimenters!

Many of the Co A actors who have trained and performed with us have gone on to even greater things—Tony nominated Broadway shows, Obie-nominated off Broadway shows, tv and feature films, national voice over work, national tv commercials, Disney Cruise Lines, as well as being hired by the American Shakespeare Center, Shakespeare & Co., Utah, Oregon, Boston, Maine Stage, Maryland, North Carolina, Hudson Valley, New Jersey, Texas, Alabama, San Francisco, Chicago, Adirondack and Richmond Shakespeare Festivals, national tours and work with acclaimed regional theaters all across the U.S. as well as admission into prestigious intern & MFA programs such as the Public Theatre, Yale University, Shakespeare Theatre of D.C., Brooklyn College, U of T/Austin, Ensemble Theatre of Cincinnati, Florida's Studio Theatre and abroad at Oxford, Cambridge, The Royal Academy of Dramatic Art and Ireland's Gaiety School of Acting (among others).

COMPANY B: Features a small cast (no more than 8) of very experienced, versatile professional actors who can play "the hero and the zero" (in the same show) with additional teaching, backstage and staff responsibilities. We need entertainers who feel at home in front of any audience, anywhere, anytime under a variety of weather conditions. WEATHERVANE THEATRE

POST OFFICE BOX 127 • ROUTE 3 • WHITEFIELD, NEW HAMPSHIRE 03598

Founded in 1966, the not-for-profit WEATHERVANE THEATRE offers a 51st Season in 2016. A professional summer repertory theatre, governed by a Board of Directors, the Weathervane continues to grow under collaborative leadership.

Co-founder: Gibbs Murray • Artistic Director: Jacques Stewart • Managing Director: Lyn Osborne Winter.

Housed in a new performance space since 2002, the original Weathervane Theatre was in a 145-year-old barn which was destroyed by fire in 2011. The new space was designed in the style of their original home, with state-of-the-art expanded space that includes their signature thrust/open two-level staging. The Mainstage Season of seven productions perform in a signature rotating repertory that is unique in the U.S. Classic and contemporary musicals large and small, drama and comedy, plus original works developed by the Company make up the summer Mainstage playbill.

The 51st Mainstage Season performs from July 9 through Sept. 3, 2016 and will include seven Mainstage productions in an alternating schedule.

[including Mamma Mia!, The King & I, Peter and the Starcatcher, and four more]

A children's/family theatre Season by our Patchwork Players will begin twice-weekly performances on July 2nd

Members of the Weathervane's INTERN PROGRAM offer a summer schedule of weekly youth theatre productions both at the Theatre and on the road as the 'PATCHWORK PLAYERS'.

In addition to Patchwork responsibilities, this tuition-based program offers class instruction, work-study in all aspects of the organization, and supporting/chorus roles in at least three of the Mainstage productions. Interns may also earn college credit, and/or opt for EMC points. Also available to enrolled participants are two reduced-tuition scholarships, the William and Lucy Chase Sparks Awards, awarded by the Theatre.

The Weathervane Company is comprised of more than fifty theatre artists – AEA (LOA/LORT) actors, interns, designers, technicians, administrators, and professional guest directors. Non-traditional casting is employed. Residence housing is provided. Arriving in late June, the Company begins rehearsals that will enable the first week's opening of multiple Mainstage productions, plus a full-Company opening night revue. Comprehensive rehearsal schedules continue as each of the additional shows are added to the repertory. Shows play at 8 p.m., Monday through Saturday (Sundays dark); with added August matinee Saturdays. Room & board is provided with three meals a day, (buffet-style; continental breakfast), Monday through Saturday, prepared by a Company chef.

Situated on 5+ acres in Whitefield, where the Great North Woods meet NH's White Mountains, the Weather-vane campus includes staff residence, workshops, rehearsal space all within a three-mile radius of the Theatre proper. The area offers many attractions – hiking and biking, visits to the Cog Railway and other points of interest, sweeping scenery - lakes, waterfalls, mountains - and shopping. Montreal is only 3 hours away by car; Boston about 3 hours south. From the central location, Weathervane performs to a loyal local population as well as summer visitors to an area that reaches from northernmost NH into bordering Vermont, east through Crawford Notch, and south to below Franconia Notch.
